any other aspect expected of a humane existence. Provided, however, that no further individualized education plans shall be funded, operated, licensed, or approved by the state or any agency or political subdivision of the state, if any related program, agency, or facility connected to such individualized education program engages in any conduct that would otherwise be prohibited by this section.

- 5. The provisions of this section shall apply regardless of the location of the relevant conduct or the residence of any impacted persons.
- § 2. Paragraph (e) of subdivision 1 of section 488 of the social services law, as added by section 1 of part B of chapter 501 of the laws of 2012, is amended to read as follows:
- (e) "Use of aversive conditioning," which shall mean the application 13 of a physical stimulus that is intended to induce pain or discomfort in 14 15 order to modify or change the behavior of a person [receiving services in the absence of a person-specific authorization by the operating, 16 17 licensing or certifying state agency pursuant to governing state agency regulations]. Aversive conditioning may include but is not limited to, 18 the use of physical stimuli such as noxious odors, noxious tastes, 19 blindfolds, the withholding of meals and the provision of substitute 20 21 foods in an unpalatable form [and], movement limitations used as punishment, including but not limited to helmets and mechanical restraint devices and any procedure which causes obvious signs of physical pain, 23 24 including but not limited to hitting, pinching and electric shock.
  - § 3. Section 488 of the social services law is amended by adding a new subdivision 17 to read as follows:
- 27 17. "Program" shall mean any residential or non-residential public or 28 private program that provides care, services, programs, and/or support 29 to vulnerable persons.
- 30 § 4. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 31 have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or 32 repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of 33 this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed 34 on or before such date.
